June 1, 2010

Dear Families and Friends,

The Class of 2010, 172 strong, has completed their course of study at Saint Mary's High School. Two wonderful evenings of prayer and celebration took place on May 27 – Baccalaureate Mass, and May 28th – Commencement, as the graduates were honored and diplomas bestowed. The ultimate goal was achieved! Congratulations graduates, moms, dads, guardians, mentors, and all – for your prayers, support and encouragement for these young men and women.

The Class of 2010 achieved a 97% graduation rate. Of the group, 117 will attend a 4-year university (in and out of state), 50 will move ahead to local community colleges, 3 have opted for military service, and 2 are unsure. The group received $1.74 million in college scholarship offers. Colleges chosen by our graduates as the next level of study and growth: ASU, UofA, NAU, Grand Canyon University, Benedictine College (Kansas), Chaminade University (Hawaii), University of Oregon, Seattle University, Penn State University, Fordham University (NY), University of Portland, University of North Dakota, University of Texas at Arlington, University of Dallas, Texas Christian University, and Oxford College at Emory University (Georgia).

Please view the June Green Streak. Pages 4 and 5 set out a summary of some of the activities that took place this year – activities which helped to form all students spiritually, academically, socially, and personally, throughout the year. As you can see, your students were busy!

Thanks to all parents who volunteered in many different capacities throughout the school year. Your gift of time and talent to us is so very much appreciated.

May the peace of the Lord be with each of your families this summer. Enjoy!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Suzanne M. Fessler
Principal
